VOL. LIX: No. 39. REDWOOD CITY, CALIFORNIA SATURDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1918 ESTABLISHED 1850

COWGILL HONORED BY TELEGRAPHERS

Through the courtesy of J. W. Munday, in charge of the Geo. H. Irving's real estate offices, Redwood the delegation of telegraphers were permitted to use the offices of that company as the place to make the presentation. Owing to the fact that a number of the men had to return to their home stations by the first train the ceremony was held at the most convenient hour, 12:30 to 1 p. m., or the dinner hour. Mr. Munday is also a member of the Order and contributed to the fund.

That you may be advised as to the spirit in which the gift was made I am quoting the presentation talk of Assistant Local Chairman Mr. C. B. Ward of San Jose; and will also quote that of Assistant Local Chairman M. J. Hoon of San Lucas, Cal.:

Mr. Ward: Brother Cowgill; we have asked you to come here that we might give evidence in some measure of the esteem in which you are held by the members of the Coast Division; therefore, we, the few members assembled, have been delegated to represent them and to show in deed our and their recognition and appreciation of your unsparing efforts and devotion to their interests in matters pertaining to our schedule

In this connection we are not unmindful of the fact that your labors in our behalf have been doubly difficult by the various rulings handed down by the railroad officials, and apparently accepted without protest, some of which we could not reconcile with our understanding of the agreement. However, notwithstanding your position as a member of the general committee you have refrained from criticism, being thoughtful that it might embarrass our general representatives and in the end accomplish no good to your constituents, but have patiently looked on trusting that in some way, some time the wrongs might be righted.

Brother Cowgill; we are fully cognizant of, and appreciate, your fine spirit of independence, and that your life has been full of giving of your time and strength and not of receiving; hence we do not wish to interrupt the stream or to impose a precedent upon you; and we do not wish you to consider this as a monetary consideration for the service you have gratuitously performed the past twelve months, for we fully realize that it would fall far short of being adequate, but rather to the contrary as a token of esteem in which you are held by the members of the Coast Division.

Brother Cowgill; with pleasure, I now present, in behalf of the members, this purse, amounting to $——

Mr. Hoon: John: This little gift to you is in a small way to show the appreciation of the Coast Division boys of your hard and endless work in our behalf and which you have so unselfishly performed with no thought of recompense; and is also an expression of our confidence in you.

We like you, John, and we hope you will accept this little token in the same spontaneous spirit in which it is given; to be used exactly as you see fit. The boys on other Divisions have at different times seen fit to reward their local chairman in a substantial way but we on the Coast have heretofore taken everything for granted, in a "let George do it" manner. "I think there is a great future ahead for our Order and I am glad to say the Coast Division boys are waking up with the boys all over the United States as never before in the history of the organization.

I could go on endlessly, but it would all mean the same, John, so I will, in the language of the old ops., ring off.

We are behind you to a finish and we are for you always, and I know it is your chief ambition to be thought of in this way by your fellowmen. We thank you, John, for your hard work in our behalf."

ALONZO COOK A PIONEER LAID TO REST

One by one the old pioneers are passing over the divide. Soon their ranks will be thinned and none will be left to tell of early traditions of Redwood City. The latest to pass from earthly scenes is Alonzo Cook, the well-known pioneer of Redwood City and one of the best known and best beloved men in this city. He had been failing for the past two years and was a sufferer from diabetes to which disease he succumbed Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Cook came to Redwood City in the early seventies at once engaged in business. He retired seven years ago to enjoy the fruits of his industry. He was an expert fisherman and with a circle of noble souls he made annual pilgrimages to the mountain streams of the state. Only a few of those making up the fishing parties are alive. Among those who would accompany Mr. Cook on fishing trips were the late C. D. Hayward, the late David Mills, the late George Green at one time sheriff of the county and the late Harry Thompson, former county clerk. The only one remaining of the old guard is P. P. Chamberlain.

Mr. Cook was a stanch Republican, no county convention in the early days would be complete without Lon Cook of Redwood City. He took a leading part in politics and was often consulted by politicians. He was a well-known figure in the ranks of the party for many years, he however, never held office, preferring to be a laborer in the ranks.

Mr. Cook was a native of Massachusetts, aged 73 years. At an early age he went before the mast and followed the sea for a number of years visiting nearly all parts of the world. He was a well-informed man. In early days everyone in the county knew and liked Mr. Cook for his genial companionship and cheerful manner.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the Cook residence on Washington street. It will be under the auspices of Redwood City lodge, No. 168, F. and A. M. Interment in Cypress Lawn cemetery. Mr. Cook is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. J. E. Ensor and Miss May Cook, deputy postmaster. The following old-time friends will act as pall bearers: John MacBain, J. F. Johnston, W. A. Price, P. P. Chamberlain, John W. Poole and W. H. Barg

LATEST SAN CARLOS ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Johnson and Master Everett came down from Calistoga to enjoy Christmas at the home of Mrs. Edw. E. Jones the sister of Mrs. Johnson. Mrs. Johnson and the boys will remain over several days, while Mr. Johnson was forced to return Thursday morning to look after his work as agent for the S. P. Co.

There was a unique family reunion at the Benedict-Palmer homes on Christmas eve at which the following relatives of the family were present: Mrs. J. Lagarde, Mr. George Lagarde and Edward Lagarde, Belmont, Mrs. Macalpine and daughter of Oakland; Mrs. H. Lagarde and Messrs. A. L. and D. Lagarde, Woodside and Mr. Frederick Jones and Miss Nyzie Lagarde of San Francisco. The home was tastefully decorated.

Mr. L. H. Patty connected with the electrical department of the S. P. company in the S. P. building, in San Francisco, was here last Monday morning. Mr. Patty had learned that the Aviation field had a small speeder of the Art Smith type to dispose of and had come down to buy it as a Christmas present for his little girl, and hence he was disappointed when he found it had been sold.

Miss Minnie Sinclair of Toronto, Canada, who came to the sunny climate of California on account of her mother's health, and who are making their home in Belmont, spent the week end with the Botterals, at La Caseta, who were old acquaintances and friends in Canada many years ago.

Mrs. Bert Anderson and her three children came up from Redwood to spend the week end at the home of her friend, Mrs. J. W. Alves.

Mr. F. H. Reed for many years in the service of the S. P. company in Portland, Oregon, and San Francisco, but who is now retired was a Christmas visitor at the Hull-Shields home. Mr. Reed was in charge of the paymaster's office at the time of his retirement.

Mr. Fred Kenneth of the Stewart Warner Mfg. Co., San Francisco, was also a Yuletide guest of the Hull-Shields families.

In the Red Cross Christmas Roll Call Drive conducted by the mayor and his two very active assistants, Mrs. Mary E. Quinn and Mrs. Gladys E. Peterson ,there were but few derelicts—$1 shirkers who got by these friends for work of this kind.

We are mighty glad that our friend Jack Bromfield, editor of the only daily paper in San Mateo county, the spicy San Mateo News, did not sit down to his typewriter to lambast our friends in the county court house three or four months before the recent election; for our friends are now safely established for the next four years, while Jack might have placed a lot of numskulls in those good jobs with just sense enough to come in our of the rain and put their feet on the radiators. Jack's typewriter is exactly like mine, but with this difference; while mine miss spells, his'n makes some d—m bad guesses.

RECEIVING CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Batchelder of Millbrae are receiving the congratulations of their many friends on the birth of little daughter on December 13th. The little Miss has been christened Doris.

T. C. RICE MOUNTS THRONE JANUARY 6

T. C. Rice, the recorder elect, will take office on January 6, next. Much speculation is rife as to what changes he will make in the personnel of the office. It is understood that his chief deputy will be Mrs. Robert J. Letts, a former deputy in the office under Recorder H. O. Heiner. She will take the place of Mrs. Jermeland who has ably and efficiently filled the duties of the position for the past year. The second deputyship will go to Mrs. W. J. McGarvey. She takes the place of Miss Cecilia Carleton who has had the place since the appointment of W. H. Barg as recorder over two years ago. She is an efficient deputy. GOOD LADY CALLED TO HER REWARD

The death of Mrs. Carl Plump early yesterday morning at her home on Finger avenue was a great shock to her family and friends in this city. Some two weeks ago she contracted a slight cold which soon developed influenza that brought on pneumonia. She made a gallant fight and for a time it was thought she would recover. Dr. Ross and two specialists were in attendance but they could not stay the hand of death. Mrs. Plump's former home was in Sacramento. A little over eight years ago she married Carl Plump. Their wedded life has been extremely happy. Two young children added to the happiness of the family circle. Mrs. Plump was a cheerful, happy woman with a genial and kind disposition. No one knew her but to love her and admire her many womanly good qualities of mind and heart. She will be sorely missed by her devoted husband and her two children will long for her kind and loving ministrations. Mrs. Plump's death was a distinct loss to the community and to the people of Redwood City to whom she was endeared.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Old Nineteen Eighteen is almost a memory. He came in mildly and amid much blowing of horns and ringing of bells but we were not a happy people. We were prosperous beyond our wildest dreams but we were at war and our boys were over in a foreign land fighting a most powerful and cruel enemy. During 1918 we and our allies won that awful war and today our boys are coming home again. Nineteen nineteen should be the happiest and best year we have ever had. We hope that it will be for everyone of our readers. We have learned much during the past year that we should carry into the new. We have learned to give freely. We were a selfish people but we have given and served without any thought of getting something back. We have deprived ourselves of things we did not need so that we could buy bonds and thrift stamps. We have learned how to save. May we not forget. We have had a dreadful epidemic and have accustomed ourselves to unpleasant things. We were helped by these experiences. May we each one of us carry into and use the things we learned in the past year. We wish you a happy and prosperous New Year.

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR EVERY AMERICAN

1—Thou shalt serve thy country.
2—Thou shalt not put any foreign nation above thy country. For if thou cleavest to some other king or principality thou hast no business eating the bread nor meat of some good American.
3—Thou shalt honor thy president for he is the one in authority. Perchance it may be that thou knowest more than he and that thou art a good Republican; but remerest thou that there were more Democratic votes two years ago than there were this year and be happy and praise Woodrow even though thou intendest to vote against him. His burden is heavy and he has borne it well.
4—Rest and meditate upon the Sabbath. Five days and a half must thou work, for the shoes and the raiment and the rent are costly. Acquaint thyself with the inside of the meeting house. Thou canst rest and listen or rest and think just as it pleaseth thee, but it is good that thou shouldst help support some church.
5—Honor thy father and thy mother and do nothing that would make them ashamed of thee. They have done much for thee and their recompense has been small.
6—Thou shalt not kill unless thou shouldst meet a really truly German.
7—Thou shalt not steal unless thou steal a few minutes of thy wasted time to think and improve thyself.
8—Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor ,nor against thy neighbor's wife, for it may befall thee that he may lay in wait for thee, and bean thee, and hurt thee sorely. A quick tongue getteth many a man and more frequently the gentler sex into much difficulty.
9—Thou shalt not drink distilled nor fermented liquids freely for it is against the laws and the statutes and after July 1st if thou imbibest freely thou maybst get him who sold it unto thee into divers difficulties.
10—Thou shalt not covet thy neighbors Ford for per adventure hadst thou one it might break thy wrist; and thou wouldst surely covet thy neighbors Buick, just as thy neighbor covets his neighbor's Pierce-Arrow. For knowest thou that the bigger the car the bigger the tires and the cost thereof and that the batteries thereof will set thee back fully forty simoleons every year. Perchance the greater thy car the larger will be the patch upon the seat of thy britches. It profits not the man who has a car for he could easily work his friends who has one, and the thrift stamps that he may save thereby will come in handy in 1923.

SAN CARLOS ITEMS

Miss Helen McDonnell of Berkeley is here for a visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Fred W. Lippman, Laurel Nook.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Powers have taken apartments in San Francisco for the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Anson S. Peterson have purchased a little home nest in Burlingame and will move as soon as Mrs. Peterson is sufficiently strong. Mrs. Peterson has been confined to her home with severe cold for several days, but something more serious has developed until D. Gregory had to be called from Redwood this morning to attend. Mrs. Peterson is one of our most active and energetic Red Cross workers and it is to be regretted that she is ill and that we are deprived of her help at this particular time. We will also be very sorry to lose this happy young couple from our midst.

Lyle J G. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Clark, and who enlisted in the electrical department of the Naval Reserve some months ago is on furlough and will remain with his parents until after the holidays. Coincident with Young Clark's arrival Miss Ruby Hurlbut one of Piedmont's most attractive young ladies is also here as the guest of the Clarks.

We are mighty glad that our friend Jack Bromfield of the only daily paper in the county, the spicy San Mateo News, did not sit down to his typewriter to lambast our friends in the county court house three or four months before the recent election. For they are now safe on their jobs for the next four years, while we might have had a lot of numskulls down there who only knew enough to come in out of the rain and keep their feet on the radiators, with Jack presiding as their political boss.

After a visit at the home of his mother ,Mrs. Mary E. Quinn, for a few days, Frank S. Quinn, who is connected with the electrical department of the naval reserve left to report last Wednesday evening. It is to be regretted that Frank's furlough did not extend over the holidays.

The folks here are responding splendidly to the Red Cross Christmas Roll Call. And when the Committee has completed its canvas we hope there will be no slackers at a dollar apiece.

THE TIDDY BROTHERS IS SUED FOR $5,068

Richard L. Grassner, a minor, by Matilda Gasser, his guardian ad litem has brought suit in the superior court against Tiddy Brothers, grocers of Burlingame, for $5,068.90 damages for injuries alleged to have been sustained on August 2d of this year.

According to the complaint, the Gasser boy, who is 11 years old, was helping to deliver merchandise for Tiddy Brothers and was riding in an automobile delivery wagon driven by another employe of the firm. The complaint alleges that owing to the negligence of this employe, the boy was thrown out and sustained painful injuries when the automobile capsized.

CALIFORNIA AND CALIFORNIANS

BY GENERAL JOHN F. SHEEHAN

Anza's Colonization Trip.

There was great rejoicing in Mexico over the report of Captain Anza, and the glad news was heralded in Spain; Anza was rewarded by promotion to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in the army, and preparations for a second expedition were begun, which, however, occupied more than a year, for the proposed undertaking was to constitute a colonization scheme for California, and more especially for the port of San Francisco, where a Presidio, pueblo and Mission were to be established. The mobolization was at Horcasitas, which was then the Capital of Sonora, north of Hermosillo, on the line of the present railroad extending from Nogales to Guaymas. This was the most important and expansive undertaking yet projected for the Californias, and it was necessary to go the fountain head, the King of Spain, for authority. Viceroy Bucareli, inspired by Father Serra, was friendly. After many months of delay Captain Anza finally in the summer of 1775 was authorized to organize the expedition and proceed to San Francisco Bay. It consisted of 30 trained soldiers, all married men, some pobladores (or settlers,) muleteers, etc., and 160 women and children—240 persons in all. They had 140 pack mules, 120 horses, 25 riding mules, 220 pack horses, and 320 head of cattle. Padres Pedro Font, Garces and Escaire were to act as spiritual guides. The expedition left Horcasitas on September 29, 1775, and after the customary encounters with roving bands of Apaches arrived at Tubec on October 23rd. On the first day out on the Arizona desert one of the married women died in childbirth—the only death recorded on the trip out of 240 souls, and there were very young children in the party ,and eight babes were born en route. Anza followed practically the same route as on the first expedition, avoided the hostile Papajos, and was received as before by Chief Palma and the Yumas. Being late in the season the crossing of the Colorado desert was easier, although they suffered from snow and ice in the San Jacinto mountains, and the party reached the Santa Ana river January 1, 1776, and arrived at San Gabriel Mission January 4,, 73 days from Tubac.

Captain Rivera Moncada was then Commandant of the small military force of California, (Fages having departed for Mexico in 1774) and met Captain Anza at San Gabriel. Moncada was on his way back from Monterey, and having learned of an Indian uprising at San Diego, sought the aid of Anza at San Gabriel. Father Jayme of the Mission San Diego had been killed, and even some of the neophytes as well as untamed Indians were in revolt against the military as well as the Missions. Captain Moncada had twelve soldiers with him, and his entire military force at that time consisted of only 71 men, scattered from Monterey to San Diego. The hostile Indians threatening San Diego numbered from 800 to 1000. Leaving a remnant of his military force and all the male and female non-combatants at San Gabriel in charge of Lieutenant Moraga, Captain Anza marched with Moncada to San Diego, a distance of about 130 miles. Anza found Moncada to be a vain, vacillating and domineering man, and he soon left him in disgust and returned to his charge at San Gabriel ,leaving however some of his soldiers at San Diego. The Anza expedition soon was on its way to Monterey, taking the old route of the Missions, arriving at the Royal Presidio on March 10, 1776. They had traveled, men, women and children, about 1000 miles from Horcasitas, Mexico, since September 29th.

Father Serra and his coadjutors came over the hills from San Carlos and joyously received the visitors, and greeted the first party of white women and children since they left Mexico in 1768. Here was the civilization and settlement of California begun in truth. Here were the people who were to form the beginning of San Francisco. The only Missions established in California at this time were those of San Diego, San Carlos, San Antonia, San Gabriel and San Louis Obispo—to be followed by San Francisco and Santa Clara within a year.

But the business of the Captain of Tubac was with San Francisco, and waiving all festivities he resumed the march on the 23rd, taking with him Lieutenant Moraga and eleven men, leaving the families to the care of the Presidio and Missions. He passed through the valley of San Juan, across the Pajaro river, down the Santa Clara valley by the present sites of Gilroy, San Jose, Santa Clara and halted for a while near the big tree, (the "Palo Colorado" of the Stanford estate) on San Francisquito Creek, in the vicinity of the Leland Stanford University, and named by Father Crespi, some time previously, Palo Alto, which it retained to this day and is the site of a beautiful city of 5000 inhabitants. There was an Indian rancheria on the creek. Arriving at the Golden Gate, (named such 70 years afterwards by General Fremont) they were delighted with the prospect afforded by the waters of the great bay . The cross was planted at Fort Point and the vicinity selected as a site for a presidio and pueblo. Here was to be a great city of the future, about the spot on which were 138 years thereafter the palatial buildings amidst which were gathered the exhibits and representatives of all the countries of the world

The next move was to explore the shores of the great bay as far as he could penetrate and with Moraga and his soldiers Captain Anza led them along the bay shore to a rivulet he named Arroyo de los Dolores, where was a small lake, now known as Mission Dolores. Then they proceeded to Lake Merced and passed along the Canyada where are now the Spring Valley Lakes, down to San Jose; thence to San Leandro, Alameda, Oakland, Berkeley, from whence they had an uninterrupted view of the Golden Gate; on along the shore of San Pablo bay to Carquinez straits, overlooking the Isle de Yagua (Mare Island,) the future cities of Vallejo and Benicia, and proceeded on to Suisun Bay, past Martinez to the estuary of the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers, (which latter was then named San Francisco.) At the site of Antioch they saw a vast stretch of tules and water and knew not what lay beyond. The snow-capped Sierras were in plain view to the east, from the base of which came the gold which converted the city of Anza to a metropolis. But the Captain of Tubac passed on, and missing the broad Livermore Valley, the party climbed the hills to the south, emerging into Santa Clara valley in the neighborhood of Gilroy Hot Springs, and arriving at Monterey April 8, 1776.

Sending messengers ahead to notify Moncada to meet him at San Gabriel, Anza started on the return trip to Mexico on April 14th, leaving Lieutenant Moraga in charge of his soldiers and settlers. The party Anza took back with him consisted of ten soldiers, Padre Pedro Font and some vanqueros—25 in all. Rivera Moncada had been excommunicated by the Padres of San Diego for interfering with their religious tenets, and was in bad humor when he met Anza at San Gabriel. The old quarrel was not patched up and Anza found Moncada as usual very discourteous, and he departed for Mexico without healing the breach. On arriving at Yuma he took Chief Palma with him to Mexico City.

This was Captain Anza's last trip to California. He was afterwards Governor of New Mexico, and died September 19, 1788. Lieutenant Moraga established the Presidio of San Francisco September 17, 1776—the year of the Declaration of Independence of the Colonies of the United States on the Atlantic side of the continent. His grave may be seen in the little church yard of the Mission St. Francis of Asisi (Dolores) San Francisco.

BE KIND TO THE DOG

For your own good don't arm yourself with sticks and stones against a cross dog, nor yet try to make friends with him. Better wait for an introduction and ignore him in the meantime.

If a dog follows you and you fail to find his owner and cannot take care of him yourself, don't try to lose him again. A good home is not hard to find.

Don't tie a dog where he will suffer from heat, wet or cold or where he can shorten his chain and be in danger of choking. Don't tie him at all if it can be avoided.

After doing what you can for a sick animal, if no veterinarian can be had, leave it alone with food and water. If it suffers and there is no chance for recovery, it is kindness to end its life.

SUPERVISORS MEET IN ADJOURNED SESSION

The board of supervisors met in adjourned session Monday, December 23, at 10 a. m., there being present Dr. C. V. Thompson presiding; T. L. Hickey, W. H. Brown, John MacBain and Jos. M. Francis.

A communication was received from Kenrick & Co., of San Francisco, owners of a tract of land at Miramar, regarding a controversy between Jos. McGill and Thomas Quinlan over the building of a fence on lots owned by Maguil and regarding which the realty firm had written the board on a previous date. In the second communication Kenrick & Co. stated that the trouble was the result of ill feeling between the two parties and they asked that no action be taken in the matter, as efforts were being made to settle it amicably. A map describing the location of the property in question and sent by the realty firm, was asked to be returned.

The request was granted, on motion of Francis, seconded by Brown.

A petition to establish a hog ranch in the county about two miles west of the town of Colma was presented by E. E. Gray and E. J. Johnson and hearing on the matter was set by Chairman Thompson for Monday, January 6, 1919.

A communication was received from the San Francisco Bulletin, soliciting advertising from the county for a special edition it intends issuing, covering the coming Live Stock Show to be held in the above city in February next.

The communication was ordered filed, on motion of Hickey, seconded by Brown.

A communication was received from the Department of the Interior, asking the board to submit a report showing the amount of explosives stored in the county.

On motion the communication was referred to the clerk of the board with instructions to fill out the blanks sent by the board with the communication.

This being the time set for the hearing of the petition for abandoning of Railroad avenue in the North Fair Oaks tract, south of Redwood City, and no objections having been filed against same, the board, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey, granted the petition.

J. S. Maguil of Miramar was granted a permit to hold a dance, on motion of Francis, seconded by MacBain, the members all voting "yes" on roll call with the exception of Supervisor Brown, who voted "no."

Nat T. Messer submitted 28.29 acres of land lying west of Belmont at $14,000 for a site for the new county hospital. The offer was received and ordered filed.

On motion of Brown, seconded by Francis, the clerk was instructed to send the three members of the advisory board on hospital sites—Messrs. Coffinberry, Nelson and Cambridge—a list of all the sites submitted, together with their locations and descriptions before January 3, at which time it was decided to visit the different prospective sites and inspect them.

On motion of Brown, seconded by Francis, Supervisor MacBain was given authority to construct a guard fence on a dangerous place in the Middlefield road. Supervisor MacBain was also given authority, on motion of Francis, seconded by Hickey, to build a bulkhead on the Woodside grade, where a washout had occurred, and on motion of Hickey, seconded by Brown, was granted permission to construct a bulkhead and fill on the La Honda grade.

The following bids were received for installing a bath tub and toilet in the women's ward at the county farm and hospital:

R. C. Holmquist	$263.00
P. E. Brand	247.50
W. J. Jamieson	324.00

On motion of Hickey, seconded by Francis, the contract for the work was awarded to Brand, he being the lowest bidder.

A formal resolution presented by County Tax Collector Ambrose McSweeney and cancelling a deed to three lots in San Mateo that had been erroneously sold to the county for delinquent taxes, was adopted, on motion of Brown, seconded by Francis.

A claim of Ellis Cook, amounting to $30 was passed by the board, on motion of Brown, seconded by Francis.

The board adjourned at 12 o'clock noon, to meet again Monday, January 6th, 1919.

S. F. MAN HURT IN CRASH, ASKS $20,000

George W. Huckins of San Francisco this week filed suit in the superior court in this city for $20,000 damages, which he alleges he sustained when an automobile driven by S. R. Hager, also of San Francisco, collided with his motorcycle last Christmas day on the State highway, causing a compound fracture of his left leg and permanently crippled him, according to the complaint.

APPLIES FOR LETTERS ON SWEETSTER ESTATE

Edwin D. Sweetser has applied in the superior court for letters of administration upon the estate of Carrie M. Sweetser, who died at San Mateo on November 5, 1918. The estate consists of a lot in the Sunnyside tract, San Francisco, worth $1000 and some personal property of small value. The petitioner is the father-in-law of the deceased. The next of kin are A. Sweetser, husband, and a son, A. W. Sweetser, aged 15 years.

DR. ROSS TO VISIT HOME

Dr. Donald Ross, San Jose dentist, and son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Ross of San Mateo, will visit his parents here over the Christmas holidays arriving tomorrow. Dr. Ross is sufficiently recovered from a recent attack of influenza now, to resume his professional work, but is planning a short rest.

ORDERED TO PAY WIFE MONTHLY ALLOWANCE

George Callan of Colma, who brought suit in the superior court some time ago for divorce from Viola Callan, has been ordered to pay his wife $35 a month for maintenance and $25 for attorney fees pending the final determination of the suit.

SEGT. JAMES O'NEILL WRITES TO FRIENDS

The following interesting letter is written by Sergeant James O'Neill. who was among the first to enter Camp Fremont and went to France last August with his company. He is a San Francisco boy:

Dear Mr. Jas. T. O'Keefe.—Now that the dove of peace flies over the land and the dark clouds of war are disappearing, I take this early opportunity of writing you.

Since my last letter I have been away ,and at a place where I could not get writing material, and have been kept very busy. I have been up in the front for two months, and while I was not in actual battle, yet I was near enough to observe what was going on. I was with the troops at the battle of the Argonne Forest and the battle of St. Hiehle. No one can picture the horrors of these battles unless he was present. But I hope when I return I shall have the privilege to address the Council and relate the story of these great battles that terminated the world's war and brought victory to us, and made the world safe for democracy.

This is about the first time in three months that I have been in a town that I could say was a quiet place, and is a great blessing from Almighty God to be back from the scenes of slaughter at the front where human life is of little value, and to be again enjoying civilized life. This is a very ancient town and many interesting things are to be seen, and I am going to gather a few of the pictures of the place, and I am also going to get other pictures and views of the other places where I have been. I will get some souvenirs, although there is a ban on the A. E. F. from taking very much stuff home. I have tried to do some work for the Knights and I think I have accomplished a great deal over here, and you will be surprised to learn that on one occasion, and a very bitter cold day it was, I went twelve miles to get a priest to celebrate mass on All Souls Day, and on another occasion we went out to a cemetery and held Memorial Services under the auspices of the K. of C. there. We had about four hundred soldiers with us. Quite a number of American soldiers are buried in the cemetery, and among them are several members of the Knights of Columbus, most of whom fell at the battle of Argonne. We covered their graves with flowers and knelt beside them in silent prayer. It was a very sad occasion and believe me every one felt the sadness in his heart. I was called upon to make the memorial address, and I did the best I could, and many of the boys felt better by going to the cemetery ,and all have a great regard for the church and the order.

This little town has one of the best club-houses in France conducted by the K. of C., and has five secretaries. The place is crowded day and night. We will have a big Thanksgiving party tomorrow night, and tomorrow's mass will be celebrated in the church. I am chairman of the committee and we are making these events successful. We will go to the headquarters and get the Colonel to issue bulletins for all the different places containing these events. I often think of San Mateo Council and its remarkable fine membership, and I often ponder over fond memories of Camp Fremont, and the many happy hours we spent there.

Give my regards to all my Menlo friends and the members of the Council and I expect soon to see you all.

With many happy returns of the Yuletide, I remain yours faithfully,

HALFMOON BAY BOY IS DEAD IN FRANCE

Harry Schuldt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schuldt of Halfmoon Bay paid the supreme sacrifice in France on October 3d, a victim, not of bullets, but of pneumonia, according to word just received by the parents.

Schuldt was a member of one of the best known coastside families and his death before he had an opportunity to serve his country in action, is mourned by many friends.

The deceased was a cousin of J. J. Bullock, the well-known local attorney.

MENLO PARK NEWS OF ALL SORTS

Doings at Peninsula Garden Spot As Told in Breezy Style By Our Reporters

A very quiet wedding was performed at the parochial residence of Father W. P. Sullivan on Wednesday at 2 o'clock when Miss Angela Broggi, the pretty, young and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Broggi, and First Sergeant Boyd Braden, were united in marriage, the Rev. W. P. Sullivan officiating. Harry B. Morey, Sr., was the best man while Miss Rose Broggi, the comely sister of the bride, acted as the maid of honor. After the ceremony the wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Broggi on Oak Grove avenue. The marriage is a culmination of a romance begun when Camp Fremont was established here. Both young people met at a local dance, the acquaintance that evening ripened into love and the marriage on Wednesday was the culmination of the happy meeting over a year ago. Mr. Braden will leave in a few days for an eastern camp. Mrs. Braden was born and raised in Menlo Park. She is a young woman possessed of many charms and womanly virtues. The young couple has the best wishes of all for a happy and prosperous wedded life.

Charles Simons passed away at Martinez of influenza on Wednesday. His wife was formerly Miss Gertrude McIntyre of Menlo Park. Besides his wife he leaves two small children to mourn him. Mrs. Simon's father, Professor McIntyre, was the principal of the Menlo Park grammar school over a decade ago.

Wrecking of the rifle range near Los Altos is now going on rapidly. This is the first tangible sign of the abandonment of Camp Fremont. The lumber is being removed and bullets dug out of the ground. Already 6000 pounds of bullets have been recovered for remelting.

Lieutenant Edward Eyre Jr., who had been attached to a ground aviation corps in the East and was about to sail for France when the armistice was signed, has arrived in San Francisco and is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Eyre, on Pacific avenue. Lieutenant Eyre has received his discharge from the army.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lynch came down from Reno on Tuesday to spend the holidays with relatives. Mr. Lynch is the chief gardener and superintendent of buildings of the State University of Nevada.

B. Liedberg, the messenger, is quite low with influenza. His friends are much alarmed. His fever ran as high as 104 yesterday.

Mrs. Kent of Menlo Park has purchased the Spruce avenue residence formerly the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hynding of South San Francisco, and now occupied by the Morris family. Mrs. Kent will take up her residence there with her two sons about the first of the year. She is a sister of W. C. Schneider of South San Francisco.

Benjamin W. Taliaferro, the photographer and proprietor of the Liberty studio in the Coxin block, left during the week for Berkeley to permanently reside. Mr. Taliaferro was the first photographer to arrive here after the establishment of Camp Fremont and for a time did a thriving business. He made many friends by his courteous treatment of customers and fair dealing with all. He became universally popular. He carries with him the best wishes of the people of Menlo Park to his new field of endeavor.

John MacM McPheeters, first lieutenant, Q. M. C. writes from France to James G. Mason. Mr. McPheeters when here was the local representative of the Emporium and was well-known. When war was declared he enlisted and securing a commission went to Camp Lewis to train. Last year he went to the front. He is a Stanford graduate. Following is the communication:

France, November 30th, 1918.—

My dear Mr. Mason: It seems ages since I last heard from you, but I have tried to let you know from time to time that I was still on top by dropping you a "Field Card" now and then.

Well, the war is finished and the Hun is licked. We have done the job which we come to do, and I suppose one of these days we will all be returning to 'God's Country.' I hope so at any rate. I have had many experiences since I came over here. I have never worked so hard in all my life. I have had a varied lot of duties to perform. I thnik that I have done everything in the army except to perform the duties of Chaplain, but I now feel that I am qualified to perform this duty should they insist upon thrusting this upon me at any time in the future. I am not the only one over here who has worked. I think that almost every American over here has had but one thought in his mind, and that was: Lick the Kaiser.

It is needless for me to try to tell you at this time of all my experiences since I have been in this country, for they are many and varied ,and as to the war, I am sure you know more at home than we do over here, still I will have many things to relate when I return for the most of my time over here has been spent traveling throughout France. My duties have always necessitated my traveling a great deal, and as a result I have seen some of the most interesting places in all the country.

Winter has set in here now and the weather is very cold and rainy and about all I do is to loaf around and think of the happy days and the wonderful climate of California.

Kindest regards to all your family,

JOHN MacM. McPHEETERS.
